about

Your wedding will always be one of the most memorable days of your life and one that you will treasure forever. Most couples will spend months, if not years, planning for this special day. This is why it is so important to find a photographer that will capture your special moments.

My approach to wedding photography is informal, creative and a ton of fun. No one likes rules and the traditionalists can keep their awkward poses! You'll find no forced cliches with me! Not all weddings are the same, and neither are all wedding photographers. It's so important to get the right 'fit'.

I would describe my style as relaxed, elegant and timeless wedding photography with an emphasis on people and emotions. It's largely documentary or candid; that means that I'll get out of your way and let you get on with enjoying yourselves, whilst grabbing all the weird, crazy, wonderful, awkward, hilarious, emotional moments as your day unfolds.

Attention to detail is a really big thing for me and I love to capture details, so any details that you have from the shoes to jewelry, to the flowers, please let me know if you have anything that is truly sentimental. Not only do I love photographing weddings, I adore the relationships that I often build with couples when we go on this journey.

I pride myself on helping couples with all aspects of their wedding day, not just the photography. It's not unusual to find me on the floor bustling a dress or chasing down some snacks for you guys before golden hour portraits.

I'm totally convinced the key to getting amazing photos is for you to feel at ease with your photographer, so apart from offering a complimentary couples connection session, I send questionnaires to get to know you and your love story and all of the details of your day. It's so much easier to tell this next chapter for you when I know what led you to this point.

I can't wait to share your special day with you!

With love,

Kaci

THERE'S MAGIC IN EVERY MOMENT...

The driving force behind the name RLF is "Real Life Fairytales". My goal has always been, and will always be, to find the magic in the moments and bring it to light. Sometimes that's a candid snapshot, sometimes it's a well-chosen prompt. One of my FAVORITE compliments to get on my photos is "You can just see the love between them" or "Look at the way they look at each other!". It actually takes a lot of coaching to get people to loosen up enough in front of a camera so that you can see their connection.

01 REACH OUT

If you like what you see from my portfolio and what you read here, please contact me via my website, phone, or email and we can arrange a time to chat and see if we would be a good fit! I find that talking to your potential wedding vendors is the number one way to find out quickly if things click or not!

02 LET'S CHAT

Once we set up at time to chat either over the phone or face to face, we can discuss your goals and my process and see if things align. If you decide that we are a good fit, we have a super simple process to get your big day on our calendar!

03 BOOK IT

The inquiry submission form on my website has a spot for you to input your event date so that I can check the calendar for you asap! So once we reach out to schedule that initial chat, you'll already know that we've got your date open! We can only hold dates without contract for a few days once we've had a consultation but are happy to keep potential couples aware of requests for their date when a little more time is needed.

04 GET TO KNOW YOU

One of my favorite parts of the wedding photography process actually comes before the wedding day! It starts with our complimentary couples connection session AKA your engagement session. It's not just another excuse to take couples photos to throw on your save the dates (although that is definitely a bonus!). The purpose of this session is to get to know you as a couple and find out what helps you feel more comfortable in front of the camera and around me. A little something different works for every couple, and finding what works for you helps me bring you out of your shell on the big day also! In addition to the session, we also send some helpful questionnaires leading up to the wedding.

05 THE BIG DAY!

The big day is here! You should expect relaxed, fun, emotional and timeless photography. I will document your day in the most natural way I can. Congrats on making it to the big day!
